His Life's Journey

"Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions; If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also." (John 14: 1-4)

Danniel Dale (Danny) Pierre, age 47, of Houston, TX, passed away suddenly on November 30, 2022, in Houston.

Reflections

To Danniel Dale, My Baby Boy-yes, to me-no matter how much you fussed at me about it, you'll always be my precious Baby Boy. I guess my nickname for you was no longer fitting, because I so proudly watched what a wonderful man you'd grown into. There are so many things that I absolutely loved about you, Danny, and will miss so very much.

First of all, the beautiful relationship you had with your own child, Brianna. From the moment she came into the world, you stood over her cradle just crying at the sight of her. Yours was the first face she saw-and there I was capturing it all on camera. You both would just laugh when people would say her face was your face with a wig on. There was hardly an event in her life that you were not there for her-from her pre-school appearance in The Lion King, her Christening and Baptismal; her winning Miss Pre-Teen Juneteenth Queen Contest; her graduation, first apartment- you were there for it all. The way that you and her beautiful mother, Shannon, worked in conjunction to provide the very best for Brianna always. She is so lucky and Blessed to have had such a loving Daddy as you.

I loved how you were with Rondalyn- the woman you'd chosen to be your wife. The love you two shared was so obvious to anyone who saw you all together. She adored you-and you, her. I was so happy for the two of you. I loved seeing how her whole family seemed to love and accept you into the Franklin Family.

I love how you still looked up to and loved your "bruddas" as you used to call Troy and Jason when you were little. I remember how you used to tell people, "I got 2 bruddas and NO sistahs" in your words-still a family joke. Most of all, I love and will miss the love and respect you always showed me and your Daddy.

Rest peacefully, my Darling Son. I will love and miss you for the rest of my life. I thank God for allowing us 47 wonderful years with you.

Your loving Mama

To my Son...

Thank you for the times we shared together. I'll always remember our Sunday phone talks, "I was just about to call you", our laughs, and the lil bouncing walk you have.

Thank God for my love and the love you gave back, It made my heart happy to see how you love and care for Brianna.

You and Rondalyn were very happy, and I always enjoyed the visits when you came to Baldwin. I'll always love and remember you.

Forever in my Heart...Daddy

I would never have imagined me having to write a memorial message to my youngest brother. I love you, Danny. I am still in a complete daze.

Danny was the perfect little brother, always supportive and loving. We never had a disagreement or argument in life! I don't know what I am going to do without him in my life. I can assure Rondalyn and Brianna you'll forever have me in your life. I will always remember when I left home for college, every Sunday morning, Danny would call my dorm and have all my teammates looking for me so he could see if I was watching wrestling.

My caring little brother is with my daughter, Lauryn now exchanging those hugs they were both known for. At least, I can find happiness in that. Danny, I will always love and miss you, Brother. I am so happy I have Jason, my other brother who has always loved me and been by my side. It's just you and me now, Jason.

Love, Troy

Today I have to say goodbye for now to my baby brother, a great father, great brother and just an all-around good person. It's your siblings that you first love that teach you how to love. He was my first best friend, favorite person, and my first fan... Lol. We had a special bond from day one.

My light skinned twin. As small kids I could do "no wrong" in his eyes. He was very loyal and down for his Big Bro. He admired me and it was that admiration that made me want to be the better person. I believed it was my responsibility to exhibit all the good traits I wanted him to have. We were separated while he was in high school, and I went away to college. That was difficult not being around him and so far away. I've always wanted to be near him so I could guide and protect him, so we reunited when he graduated high school and came to Houston with me. To Brianna and Rondalyn, you can thank me now for I'm the reason he was in Houston.

Brianna, I watched how you changed Danny...how he matured shouldering the responsibility of being a "Girl Dad". The love and teachings from a father are to be cherished for a lifetime...passed down to your kids and generations thereafter. That is how we keep him alive.

Rondalyn, your love for my Baby Brother was unconditional. I just want to acknowledge you and say, Thank you! Let us both remember and cherish the good times in my baby brother's life.

Now that it's all said and done, it's me looking up to Danny because he's made me so proud of him. I paid attention to how loyal he was to his family and friends and how loyal they were to him. Watching him grow as a father, spouse and businessman inspires me to try my best and also to really start enjoying life while I'm here. I'll never be the same, a special part of me is gone from this world. Until we see each other again Little Bro Rest in Peace.

Love Always, Jason

To the Love of my Life....

Although it is until death do us part, know that we will never truly part because our souls are made for each other.

As I have spent my whole life looking for my other half, I knew it was you from the moment we met.

You are my best friend, my inspiration, my love and my everything. I will always and forever be your baby girl!

Love,

Rondalyn Pierre

Dear Dad....

I am so grateful that I was able to have a man as wonderful as you to call my father. Still till this day, a part of me won't let me believe God called you home.

The love we shared was beautiful. I adored you and I was your world. I knew this day would come eventually, but not this soon. Losing you has been one of the hardest things for me, but our memories are what keeps me going every day.

I thank you for being an incredible role model, a shoulder to cry on, a leader, a teacher and most importantly, an amazing father. You took a part of me with you, but I know you will forever be with me. You were such a joy and a light to the world, and you will be deeply missed. I love you so much and I promise to keep making you proud.

I love you forever and after then,

Your Princess and One and Only "Wooka Wook" ♥

[illegible]

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost—
and he was loved so much.

Celebration will begin immediately following the memorial service at the pavilion
